The 1979-1980 Lee High Generals had a winning season this year with a 16-14 overall record. The Generals were runner-up in District 4 Tournament, which gave them the opportunity to go to the North State. This was their first tournament bid in 11 years. The team will be losing starting center Steve McCann, but Coach Bob Williford anticipates a better season next year due to the valuable experience his present team members have gained

The Lady Generals finished the 1980 basketball season with a 1-25 overall record. The win of the season was beating our cross-town rival, Caldwell. Coach Tammy Butler was quite pleased with her team's improvement through the season, and she expects a better team with more experience next year. The Lady Generals will be losing no starters. Coach Butler stated that the team improved with each game, and she looks forward to many wins next year.

This year's track team worked hard and accomplished much under the direction of Coach Robert Smith. The team proved to be most successful in its field events. Dickie Peralto and Eddie Terry did well in the shotput events while Ben Hopkins did so in the discus. In the High Jump, Frank Ussery and Anthony Williams went to the District Meet. Frank Ussery placed first and qualified for North State.

The team is very young and looks forward to next year. The team will be losing Seniors Dennis Miller, Larry Sherrod, Eddie Terry, and Dickie Peralto.

GIRLS' TRACK

The 1980 Lee High Girls' Track Team had an outstanding season under the direction of Coach Bert Wynn. The team won seven straight tournaments and placed second at North State. Winning second place qualified the Lady Gens to travel to State Tournament where they placed second overall in the state.

Coach Wynn is looking forward to next year and has great expectations for the team. Two seniors, Geneva Atkins and Sandra Moore, will be missed. Lee High is proud of Sandra Moore. She has been awarded a four year track scholarship to the University of Alabama. Congratulations Lady Gens for another outstanding season!

David Walker Tom Spindler Laura Dickerson Greg Thompson and Yvette Harrison admire the attractive displays their fellow classmates created

D.E.C.A. students Ethel Moore and Randy Stacy, 'show off' with the show case.

Michael Doughty and Paulene Reese get into the swing of things with this nice display

Michelle Mann pauses for a moment from her job at Shoney's.

Laura Dickerson works at The She Shop

DECA student Bernard Shelton is having a great experience in the business world while working at Shoney's.

Twenty-four students participated in this year's DECA program. The Distributive Education Club of America believes in free enterprise and that everyone should do his best to prepare for an occupation. The club also believes that everyone can make a living any way he desires. The students receive classroom education, as well as experience in the business world.

Tom Spandler checks the stock at Sunflower where he works after school and on weekends.

Patricia Graham and Rusty Greene arrange the display case at school.

Mrs. Prim Conner, DECA sponsor, watches as her students present sales demonstrations.
